START HERE

From idea to first sale in 30 days

One small task a day, around your job and your life. By day 30 you'll have chosen an idea, tested it, priced it, launched it and set up a simple routine.

HOW IT WORKS

1. Do one task a day, about 20–30 minutes.
2. Use the worksheets when a task sends you there.
3. Review every seven days.
4. Miss a day? Just do the next one.

THE FOUR WEEKS

Week 1: Find your idea
Week 2: Check it and shape it
Week 3: Build it
Week 4: Launch it
Days 29–30: Keep going

General information to help you get started, not financial, tax or legal advice. Check GOV.UK for the rules that apply to you.

NOTES

WEEK 1

Find your idea

Look at what you're good at, what you enjoy and how much time you really have, then choose one idea.

TASKS

- [ ] Day 1: Why do you want this?
- [ ] Day 2: Skills and interests
- [ ] Day 3: Brain dump ideas
- [ ] Day 4: Time and energy audit
- [ ] Day 5: Score your ideas
- [ ] Day 6: Pick one
- [ ] Day 7: Week 1 review

MY INTENTION

DAY 1

Why do you want this?

Extra money, freedom, creativity, a way out? Your "why" keeps you going on hard days.

Today: Write your why and your money goal on the "My why" worksheet (page 25).

DAY 2

Skills and interests

The best side hustles sit where what you're good at meets what you enjoy.

Today: List everything on the skills and interests inventory (page 26). Ask a friend what you're good at, too.

3

Brain dump ideas

Quantity first, quality later. Silly ideas often lead to good ones.

Today: Write at least 20 side hustle ideas on page 27. Products, services, digital, local… anything.

NOTES

4

Time and energy audit

A side hustle has to fit around your real life, not an imaginary one.

Today: Map your week on the time audit (page 28) and find your realistic hours.

☐ Done ☐ Started ☐ Not today

Motivation ○ ○ ○ ○ ○

NOTES

DAY 5

Score your ideas

Score your top ideas on interest, skills, demand, cost and time.

Today: Use the idea scorecard (page 29) for your top five ideas.

NOTES

DAY 6

Pick one

Choosing is the hardest part. Remember, you can change your mind later.

Today: Circle your highest-scoring idea that still excites you. Write it in big letters below.

WEEK 2

Check it and shape it

Work out who it's for, what they need, what the competition does, and what you'll charge.

TASKS

- [ ] Day 8: Who is it for?
- [ ] Day 9: What do they need?
- [ ] Day 10: Check the competition
- [ ] Day 11: Test demand
- [ ] Day 12: Build your offer
- [ ] Day 13: Set your price
- [ ] Day 14: Week 2 review

MY INTENTION

DAY
8

Who is it for?

A clear customer makes every other decision easier.

Today: Describe your ideal customer on page 30.

10

Check the competition

Competition is good: it proves people buy this. Look for gaps.

Today: Research five competitors on page 31.

DAY
11

Test demand

Before you spend money, check people want it.

Today: Search Etsy, Google, Pinterest or Facebook groups for your idea. Ask five people in your target group if they'd buy it.

UK admin checklist

The basics to check when you start earning from a side hustle. Rules change, so check GOV.UK.

- [ ] Check your employment contract allows a side business
- [ ] Understand the £1,000 trading allowance and whether you need to register for Self Assessment (check GOV.UK for current rules)
- [ ] If you need to, register with HMRC as self-employed (by 5 October after the tax year you started)
- [ ] Keep simple records of all income and expenses from day one
- [ ] Open a separate bank account (makes records much easier)
- [ ] Check if you need insurance (public liability, product liability, professional indemnity)
- [ ] Check any licences or rules for what you sell (food, cosmetics, toys, childcare…)
- [ ] Tell your mortgage lender or landlord if you'll work from home with customers or stock
- [ ] Check if your benefits or tax credits are affected
- [ ] Set aside money for tax as you go
