Welcome

This planner gives your Bible reading a gentle shape: a place to slow down, notice what the passage says, and bring it into everyday life and prayer.

It works with any translation and any church background, and it's undated, so you can start on any day. Use as much or as little as helps you. A short, honest study beats a long one you never begin.

INSIDE

STUDY METHODS

How SOAP works

A simple four-step way to study any passage, used by churches all over the world.

S Scripture
Read the passage slowly. Write out the verse or phrase that stands out to you.

O Observation
What does it say? Who is speaking, to whom, and why? What words repeat? What does it show about God?

A Application
What does this mean for my life today? Is there something to believe, change, stop, start or thank God for?

P Prayer
Talk to God about what you've read. Keep it simple and honest.

AN EXAMPLE

S: "Come to me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28 (WEB)
O: Jesus invites everyone who is tired, not only the strong. The invitation comes before any instructions.
A: I don't have to sort myself out before I come to him. I'll stop putting prayer off until I feel "ready".
P: Thank you for welcoming me as I am. Help me rest in you today.
